

In the Holy City

Print

Print

View of Jerusalem

Less welcome news regard the fraternity in Jerusalem: br Daniel and br Alberto, due to the non-renewal of their lease, have been obliged to move in a hurry from the house where they resided in the center of the old town to a temporary residence fraternally put at their disposition by the Custodian of the Holy Land, fr Pierbattista Pizzaballa

Less welcome news regard the fraternity in Jerusalem: br Daniel and br Alberto, due to the non-renewal of their lease, have been obliged to move in a hurry from the house where they resided in the center of the old town to a temporary residence fraternally put at their disposition by the Custodian of the Holy Land, fr Pierbattista Pizzaballa. We at Bose have tried to be close to them, also through the presence of sr Raffaella, who stayed in Jerusalem for a month and was able to help the brothers move, and of br Sabino, who in February held a cycle of classes at the Franciscan Biblical Studium.